For the Suffolk County Department of Parks, Recreation and Conservation to Design, Restore, Operate, Manage, Occupy and Maintain Residential or Business Facilities
At

Elwood School House

And

Black Duck Lodge

The County of Suffolk, on behalf of its duly constituted Department of Parks, Recreation & Conservation, invites proposals from qualified proposer(s) expressing interest and providing concepts related to the design, restoration, operation, management, occupation, and maintenance/curatorship of residential and/or business facilities at Suffolk County Parks properties known as Elwood School House and/or Black Duck Lodge.

Suffolk County's parks system includes a number of unused, historically significant buildings. Over time, these properties have fallen prey to the elements and vandalism. The goal is to establish a program to preserve these properties through a public-private partnership. The County will partner with an entity that will rehabilitate, manage, and maintain Elwood School House and/or Black Duck Lodge in return for long-term use of the property(ies). The County will secure the long-term preservation of these threatened historic sites in exchange for the opportunity for the public to live or work in a one-of-a-kind location.

To receive a full copy of the RFEI, beginning June 3, 2013, potential responders must contact the Parks Department directly, specifically request a copy of this RFEI, and complete a registration form provided at the time of inquiry. Registration is a prerequisite for attendance at any/all site tours, submission of technical questions, and for submitting a response to the RFEI.

Submissions Due: July 18, 2013

RFEI packages will be available for pick-up commencing June 3, 2013 at:
