Charting the Course

Where Technology and Government Meet To Create Opportunities

Civic Tech Suffolk

Presented by: Presiding Officer DuWayne Gregory
Suffolk County Legislature

When: Tuesday, August 8, 2017
9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
Registration, breakfast and networking begin at 8 a.m.

Where: Suffolk Community College, Selden
Babylon Student Center, Montauk Room

Experts from government, business and tech will discuss the emerging influence of technology in the business and government sectors and how it can be used to solve municipal and social challenges.

Topics will include…

Cybersecurity • Predictive Analytics • Business Development & Procurement • Using tech for smart growth and to connect with Next Generation residents •

Also featuring: Apps & Gadgets Café showcase

Panel Moderated By:

Andrew Ehinger
News 12 Reporter and Host of "The Download"

Keynote Address By:

Sid Burgess, Gov-Tech Expert
Senior Solutions Consultant at Granicus, Inc.

FREE EVENT!

To RSVP, contact Christina DeLisi at (631) 853-6377
Or email Chartingthecourse.legislature@suffolkcountyny.gov