

At Vanderbilt Museum: Arena Players Present
John Patrick's Cheating Cheaters, December 28-January 20

The Arena Players Repertory Theatre will present Cheating Cheaters by John Patrick from December 28 – January 20 at the Suffolk County Vanderbilt Museum's Carriage House Theatre.

This touching, funny and warm-hearted story follows the hilarious adventures of two lovable sisters, who impersonate begging nuns in order to put their niece through art school. This scheme is complicated by a burglar, who makes off with the nuns' ill-gotten gains and a suspicious policeman who has followed them home. The show becomes a larceny for laughter as the cheaters start cheating the cheaters.

Performances are Friday and Saturday at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are $20 on Friday and Sunday, and $25 on Saturday. For reservations or more information, call 516-293-0674. Or visit www.ArenaPlayers.org.

The theatre is located at the Vanderbilt Museum, 180 Little Neck Road, Centerport, NY, and is fully accessible to the handicapped.

*Photo by Frederic De Feis
Richard Jiminez, Lynn Foster and Brian Cornelius*

In this funny and warm-hearted story, two lovable sisters impersonate begging nuns in order to put their niece through art school.

KIOLI:

This touching, funny and warm-hearted story follows the hilarious adventures of two lovable sisters, who impersonate begging nuns in order to put their niece through art school. This scheme is complicated by a burglar, who makes off with the nuns' ill-gotten gains and a suspicious policeman who has followed them home. The show becomes a larceny for laughter as the cheaters start cheating the cheaters.