

August at the Vanderbilt Museum

Sunday, August 21: Antique Automobile Club of America's Show of Classics

The Vanderbilt Cup Region chapter of the Antique Automobile Club of America (AACA) will hold its annual antique and classic car show at the Vanderbilt Museum on Sunday, August 21, from 11 to 4 p.m.

The Museum is located at 180 Little Neck Road, Centerport, N.Y.

More than 50 cars will be displayed on the Great Lawn next to the Vanderbilt Mansion, overlooking Northport Bay.

1949 Packard Super Eight

Visitors pay only the museum's general admission fee (adults $7, students with ID and seniors 62 and older $6, children 12 and under $3) – there is no additional charge for car show. Museum members enter the show free. Food will be available for purchase.

All Month: Shakespeare Fest – 'The Taming of the Shrew'

Mary Caulfield
and Evan Donellan

The Arena Players Repertory Theater's 28th annual Shakespeare Festival continues with the premier on Wednesday, August 3, of The Taming of the Shrew.

The Bard's classic comedy of love and marriage will be performed on the Vanderbilt Mansion courtyard stage, where the Mediterranean architecture adds a touch of charm and magic.

Performances – on Wednesdays and Fridays at 8:00 p.m. and Sundays at 7:00 p.m. – will be given on August 3, 7, 10, 12, 14, 17, 19, 21, 24, 26, 28 and 31.

Admission: $15 per person. To purchase tickets, call 516-293-0674. Details on both productions: www.arenaplayers.org

Theater-goers are encouraged to bring a picnic and enjoy dinner before the show.