

MEDIA ADVISORY FROM PRESIDING OFFICER DUWAYNE GREGORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Friday, June 17, 2016

CONTACT:
LUANN DALLOJACONO
Office: 631-853-5807
Luann.Dallojacono@suffolkcountyny.gov

Presiding Officer Gregory To Host Summit To Help Businesses ‘Chart Their Course’

- WHO: Suffolk County Legislature Presiding Officer DuWayne Gregory
William Lindsay III, 8th District Legislator and Chair of the Legislature’s Economic Development Committee
Suffolk County Alliance of Chambers
Suffolk County Executive Steve Bellone
Business sector and industry leaders, business owners
- WHAT: “Charting the Course,” a free business summit, will explore how small businesses in Suffolk County can benefit from economic drivers and push their companies forward. Business owners and economic stakeholders are invited to hear from a panel of experts and attend breakout sessions for discussions with business sector leaders. At the end, local restaurants will showcase their specialties at “A Taste of Suffolk.”
- WHEN: Friday, June 24, 2016, 9 a.m.-1 p.m.
- WHERE: Suffolk County Community College Ammerman Campus
Babylon Student Center, Montauk Room
533 College Road, Selden

Register at <http://legis.suffolkcountyny.gov/chartingthecourse.html>.

For more information, call 631-853-6354.

Flier attached.