LEGISLATOR CILMI HONORS AMVETS POST # 18

LADIES AUXILIARY

Legislator Cilmi presented a proclamation to Muriel Uebel, President of the AMVETS Post # 18 Ladies Auxiliary

Legislator Tom Cilmi recently presented a proclamation to the members of the AMVETS Post #18 Auxiliary for being named this year's National Ladies Auxiliary of the Year at the AMVETS 69th Convention held in St. Louis, Missouri.

For 46 years, AMVETS Post #18 Ladies Auxiliary has been making a difference in the Town of Islip and beyond by volunteering at the VA Hospital, providing food baskets for the needy, providing scholarships for school children, and running a variety of other activities for hospitalized veterans.

In addition, they also received First Place in National Honors for their Hospital Program, Nursing Home activities, and scholarship awards and were named National Runner-up for their Americanism projects.

Legislator Cilmi stated "The ladies of AMVETS Post #18 are an exceptional group. The East Islip community has always known it and now the whole Country knows it. I am so proud and thankful for all they do."
