BARRAGA: NEWS FROM THE 11TH DISTRICT

BARRAGA AND CARPENTER ATTEND THE ANNUAL ELIZABETH T. MCNAMEE MEMORIAL 5K RUN

Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) and Islip Town Supervisor Angie Carpenter attended the 19th Annual Elizabeth T. McNamee Memorial 5K Run held in West Islip.

Elizabeth was a young woman who attended West Islip High School and later graduated from Harvard University with honors. In her final year at NYU Law School her life suddenly ended. She died from a disease known as Hypertrophic Cardiomyopathy (HCM).

The fund was established in Elizabeth's honor to help educate the public and healthcare professionals; provide support services to those affected by this rare disease and to support scholarship programs, community projects, childhood disease foundations and pediatric care facilities.

This year hundreds of volunteers and participants attended the race.
