Legislator Kennedy Tells Tales to 4 & 5 Year Olds

December 8, 2011: Legislator Kennedy highlighted Nesconset Branch of the Smithtown Library Children's Department Program; Fun for 4's and 5's. Legislator Kennedy read children's classics 'Alexander and the terrible, horrible, no good, very bad day' by Judith Viorst, "I took my frog to the Library" by Erick Kimmel and "Mouse Paint" by Ellen Stoll Walsh to local 4 and 5 year olds. All of the children were participants of a program offered exclusively by the Smithtown Library

The Nesconset Branch of The Smithtown Library boasts a brand new state of the art building; the site of the old Smithtown Armory now serves as a landmark and major resource center for the community of Nesconset. The Smithtown Library Children's Department contains a comprehensive collection of book and non-book materials to meet the educational, cultural and recreational needs of the public.

Readers' advisory services are provided through individual book talks and printed bibliographies. Tours of the facilities are conducted for schools, clubs, scouts, and other organizations. Games, puzzles and pop-up books are available for use by young children in the library. A Parent/Teacher Collection in various formats is maintained, along with a comprehensive information loose-leaf binder (Parent's Book). A Summer Reading Club is run every summer to encourage vacation reading.
