ANTHONY M JOY HONORED FOR SCOUTING ACHIEVEMENTS

(Legislator Leslie Kennedy and Comptroller John Kennedy with Eagle Scout Anthony M Joy and his grandmother)

January 8, 2017 – This past Sunday, Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) continued showing her support and appreciation for the Boy Scouts of America by presenting a proclamation to Anthony M. Joy, who has risen to the rank of Eagle Scout in Troop 356. The ceremony honoring this achievement took place at the Centereach Fire Department

For his service project, Anthony designed and built an outdoor kitchen for Hobbs Farm, a non-profit organization who provides fresh wholesome produce to those who need a helping hand. The new kitchen is complete with four corner posts, a shingled roof, and counter space with shelves underneath. It's a big step up from the portable carport and folding tables the farm employed for prior barbecues and provides shelter for the organization's two gas grills.

Anthony has been with Troop 356 since the beginning of his scouting career. Legislator Kennedy is proud of his achievement and dedication.

“Anthony's project will benefit so many for years to come. To see a young man committed to such an important cause is inspiring. I look forward to his future endeavors.”
