Leslie Kennedy Ushers the 90's Into Nesconset

(Legislator Leslie Kennedy, Little Miss Nesconset, John Zollo, and Tom Guise)

July 25th, 2017 – On an unseasonably cool Tuesday night, Nesconset residents and other community members gathered at the Nesconset Gazebo to hear The 90's Band bring them the sounds of Third Eye Blind, Alanis Morissette, The Cranberries, Bush and many more classic 90's bands. Tom Guise, a student at Sachem North High School volunteered to sing the National Anthem, but the crowd was treated to a beautiful rendition of Lee Greenwood's God Bless the USA, sung by Smithtown community local John Zollo to honor the troops serving this great country.

Little Miss Nesconset did her weekly duty of selecting the fifty-fifty winner, a local veteran. The proceeda went to the Nesconset Chamber of Commerce. "I'd like to thank Tom and John for opening today's concert up, The 90's Band for their music, Little Miss Nesconset for her help today, and each and every one of you for making this concert a success,"

Legislator Kennedy stated. "Thank you all for attending, and I hope to see you at the same time next week for our next act with the New Millennium Jazz Band."
