Kennedy Collects 46 Pints of Blood at Ronkonkoma Street Fair

(Dale Spencer, Legislator Leslie Kennedy, Vito Dagnello, Alisa Azzarelli, and Ali Nazir)

September 3, 2017 – After collecting her 1000th pint of blood at her Office BBQ blood drive, Legislator Kennedy keeps at it with the collection of 46 more pints of blood. Last Sunday at the Ronkonkoma Street Fair, Kennedy along with Legislator Muratore, and their teams had two blood buses ready to collect blood from street fair attendees. Blood, which is always important, has become more important in the wake of Hurricane Harvey. Now more than ever blood is needed to help those affected by this disaster.

As always two Mets tickets will be sent to each of the donors who presented to donate. Not only did Legislator Kennedy facilitate this blood drive, but she also opened an informational table for the community, which provided information on many pressing issues and how to get help, as well as government resources.

“I am immensely thankful for all the folks who came out to donate blood in subpar weather,” said Legislator Kennedy. “Thanks to the donors lives will be saved. I also want to thank New York Blood Services, the Lake Ronkonkoma Chamber of Commerce, as well as all of those who volunteered to help today.”
