Legislator Gregory, Chair of the Suffolk County Hate Crime Task Force, appoints Isabel Sepulveda de Scanlon

Amityville, NY- Suffolk County Legislator DuWayne Gregory announces the appointment of Isabel Sepulveda de Scanlon to the Suffolk County Hate Crime Task Force. The Task Force is responsible for bringing County leaders together to assemble information to look at incidents of bias and hate related crimes, determine the cause of bias-related crimes not being reported, and determine the sources of hate crimes.

Isabel Sepulveda de Scanlon is an active member of the Latino community. She has worked and lived in the East End for 18 years. Isabel began the first bilingual television show in the East End; and is the founder and publisher of "Voz Latina" a Bilingual newspaper in 2004 and "Nuestra Prensa" Spanish newspaper in 2003/2004. "Isabel brings with her the knowledge and experience of working with the Latino community to the Hate Crimes Task Force. Having her perspective will be truly beneficial in addressing the concerns of the Latino community as the Task Force goes thru this process," says Legislator Gregory.
