HUNTINGTON, NY- Suffolk County Legislator Steve Stern (D-Huntington) 16th L.D., Chairman of the Veterans Committee, is advising our veterans that the Amityville Community Resource Center is hosting a free Veterans Job and Information Fair on September 27, 2016 at Liberty Village, 600 Albany Avenue, Amityville. The event is sponsored by the Long Island Coalition for the Homeless, The Urban League EOC of Suffolk, United Veterans Beacon House, Veterans Health Alliance of Long Island, Services for the Underserved and Concern for Independent Living.

The Information Fair starts at 10 am. Representatives of government agencies, including the Suffolk County Department of Labor, the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, the Veterans Health Alliance of Long Island, the Dwyer Veterans Peer Support Project, Suffolk County Community College and more will be available to assist our veterans. The Information Fair runs until 4 pm, as will the Job Fair.

The Job Fair will begin at 12 noon - 4 pm. Many employers will be present, from retail, banking, social service and other employers. Bring your resume and dress for success. For further information, please contact the Long Island Coalition for the Homeless at 631-464-4313 or at www.addresssthehomeless.org

“It is vitally important that we reach out to our veterans to provide them with information regarding available benefits, resources and training available to them and their families,” Legislator Stern said. “We owe the brave men and women who have sacrificed so much for our great nation, not only a debt of gratitude but meaningful support.”
