Hauppauge, NY – The Third Legislative District has a new representative on the Suffolk County Women's Advisory Commission. Legislator Kate Browning (WF-Shirley) recently appointed Alison Neumann of Bellport Village to the commission and attended her swearing in on Tuesday, February 11, 2014. The Commission suggests programs, advises the Office of Women Services on policy and advocates for the betterment of the women of Suffolk County.

“Alison has been a strong advocate for her community, and I know she will be a valuable asset to the commission and women across Suffolk County,” stated Legislator Browning. “I wish her the best of luck and look forward to working with her to meet the commission's goals.”

Alison Neumann grew up in Bellport where she still lives today and is a retired insurance administrator. She served as Bellport Village Trustee from 2010-2012, and has worked as a volunteer for years on the annual Bellport Clipper Classic 5K Run in Bellport Village.
