Center Moriches, NY – On Sunday, March 15 residents, community organizations and elected officials braved the cold and celebrated St. Patrick's Day in Center Moriches. Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce of the Moriches, the community held its 13th Annual St. Patrick's Day parade. Legislator Kate Browning (WF-Shirley) marched in the parade along with Legislator Al Krupski, County Clerk Judith Pascquale and Councilman Dan Panico.

This year's Grand Marshal was Anthony "Tony" Parlato, who owned and operated Triconic Labs in Center Moriches for decades. He also founded the Moriches Youth Organization (MYO) and was one of the founders of the Moriches Community Center. Tony continues to be very involved in supporting the youth of Center Moriches.

"I always enjoy participating in the Center Moriches St. Patrick's Day festivities, and this year was another great one," stated Legislator Kate Browning. "The chamber chose a well deserving Grand Marshal in Tony Parlato, who has done so much for the Center Moriches community. It was an amazing turnout as always."
