Bellport/Mastic Beach, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Kate Browning attended community events in Bellport and Mastic Beach on Tuesday, Aug. 4 to celebrate National Night Out Against Crime. Every year community organizations across the country partner with local law enforcement to stand up against crime on the first Tuesday in August.

Nonprofits and other local organizations set up informational tables, and music, food and activities for children were provided courtesy of the event's sponsors. The Bellport Hagerman East Patchogue Alliance organized the event in bellport and The Mastic Moriches-Shirley Library coordinated the Mastic Beach festivities.

“It was a great turnout in Bellport and Mastic Beach for National Night Out Against Crime,” stated Legislator Kate Browning. “Thanks to the Bellport Hagerman East Patchogue Alliance, the Mastics-Moriches-Shirley Community Library, and the Suffolk County Police Department for organizing these positive events in our communities. Crime will not be tolerated, and its nights like these that help to send this important message, and to foster and build a better relationship between law enforcement and the people they serve.”
