Selden, NY –Legislator Tom Muratore was recently out and about the Fourth Legislative District to attend various community events. Centereach Bible Church, located on North Coleman Road, held its 60th Anniversary celebration on Saturday, June 10th. Legislator Muratore was there to offer his congratulations, and presented a proclamation to Pastor Scott Kraniak and the entire congregation.

On Sunday, June 11th Muratore participated in the Farmingville Street Fair, sponsored by the Farmingville Hills Chamber of Commerce. Many participants lined the streets and offered delicious foods, entertainment, goods and services. One of the attendees, Caterina Capogna of La La's Flea Market, recently held a community grand opening. Legislator Muratore stopped by to welcome her with a Certificate of Recognition.

“This weekend’s weather was beautiful, which gave me the perfect opportunity to meet with local businesses and community members,” stated Legislator Muratore. “I love to see fun, affordable, family friendly events taking place in my hometown; it’s truly a pleasure to represent this community.”
