PORT JEFFERSON, NY – Legislator Sarah Anker attended Mather Hospital’s First Annual Nursing Quality Showcase on November 30th. The showcase featured dozens of presentations and poster displays highlighting best practice initiatives at Mather Hospital. Topics included the Reduction of Hospital Acquired Infections, Collaborative Problem Solving and Prevention Strategies for Slip & Fall Injuries.

“The Nursing Quality Showcase is a great way to highlight the tremendous work of the Nursing Department at Mather Hospital. Mather’s nurses provide first rate quality care to all patients being treated at the hospital and I support and commend their efforts,” said Legislator Anker.

Mather Hospital’s Nursing Department has been recognized as a highly skilled, professional and dynamic cornerstone of the hospital. For more information on Mather Hospital, visit their website at www.matherhospital.com or call (631) 473-1320.
