HOLBROOK, NY – Legislator Sarah Anker presented Hope House Ministries with a Certificate of Appreciation at their 31st Anniversary event on November 28th. The Annual Holiday Party was held at Villa Lombardi’s in Holbrook and attracted over 800 attendees. The Lombardi family generously donated the party and all contributions went directly to the ministry.

“Hope House Ministries and Father Frank provide valuable services to our youth and families in times of crisis. I commend the ministry on the work they do and am proud to be able to support them in their efforts to help those in need,” stated Legislator Anker.

Hope House Ministries, founded in 1980, strives to ‘provide compassionate, comprehensive and competent care’ for the most vulnerable in society.
